TRIP RULES

- 1) All students are expected to follow the provided trip agenda and to adhere to all timeframes communicated.
- 2) All students are expected to follow all rules (written or spoken) by trip chaperones.
- 3) No students will be allowed in the hotel room of other students of the opposite sex at any time unless escorted by a chaperone for an express purpose.
- 4) At no time should a student be alone or in pairs. All students are expected to remain in groups of three or more and with at least one cell phone.
- 5) Absolutely no tobacco, alcohol, illegal drugs or weapons will be permitted.
- 6) As this is a church sponsored trip, appropriate attire is required (no shorts, tank tops, sleeveless shirts, etc.).
- 7) All students are expected to exhibit Christ-like character at all times in word and in actions.
- 8) Any infraction of rules will result in the student being sent home immediately.

Students

I have read the above rules and agree to abide by them completely. I will also obey all instructions given by any chaperone for the duration of this trip.

Parents

I have read and discussed the above rules with my student. I agree that if called due to an infraction of any rule by my student, that I will promptly make arrangements to pick-up my student from the trip.
